

New Press Box Erected; Announcing Booth Added

A new press box was recently added to the facilities at Snell Field following the destruction of the old one during a wind storm last spring.

Several extra features were incorporated in the building of the new press box, the most notable being the flat roof. This is very advantageous for taking motion pictures of the games. Another addition is the space allotted in front of the press box for WNTC announcers.